

PRESIDENT: It is withdrawn. Do you have any introduction of new bills, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Mr. President, I do. New bills. LB 1032 is offered by the Transportation Committee and signed by its members. LB 1033 offered by the Business and Labor Committee and signed by its members. LB 1034 by Business and Labor. LB 1035 by Business and Labor and signed by its members. LB 1036 by Business and Labor. LB 1037 by Senator Hartnett. LB 1038 by Senator Korshoj. (Read by title for the first time. See pages 231-33 of the Legislative Journal.) That is all that I have this morning, Mr. President, at this time.

PRESIDENT: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. We'll move on to General File and go to LB 180, please.

CLERK: Mr. President, 180 was a bill introduced by Senator Wesely. (Read title.) The bill was introduced on January 9 of last year, Mr. President. At that time it was referred to the Transportation Committee for public hearing. The bill was advanced to General File. I do have amendments pending by the Transportation Committee.

PRESIDENT: Senator Lamb, please.

SENATOR LAMB: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, LB 180 is a bill introduced by Senator Wesely which has to do with the regulation of automatic dialing devices. The committee passed two relatively minor amendments to the bill. The first part of it has to do with clarifying the language as to what numbers can be used by these automatic dialing devices. Since there has been deregulation, the original bill says this device could make calls only to numbers listed in telephone directories published by a telephone company. But since there has been deregulation there are a number of other entities who publish telephone directories, so the committee amendment would merely change that language so that any public telephone directory you could...the numbers from that directory could be used, and it did not have to be published by a telephone company. Secondly, the amendment reinserts the word "advertising" on page 4, line 25 in the bill. These automatic dialing devices are used for purposes other than advertising which are deemed to be in the public good, such as if your order comes and the company wants to notify you as a consumer that your order has arrived, your number would be put on this automatic dialing device so that you would automatically
